

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Cluster of Critics.

"Yes, he may be very bright and very fine,"
Said the cloud about the sun.
"People say so, but for me shine, When I'm round, I always find he doesn't shine!"

"Call that candle brilliant? Pshaw," remarked with heat
The extinguisher. "Poor dance, I can put her out at once."
She is never, never dazzling when we meet!"

"They say diamonds are sparkling!" sneered the clay.
"All I know is, in our mine,
That I never saw one shine.
Though they lived right in our midst, as one might say!"

So they settled it—and really they were right.
From their special point of view;
Everything they said was true.
But—the sun, the flame, the diamond still shone bright!

Women Interested.

All the Presbyterian women of Virginia are interested in the first annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Synod of Virginia at the Grace Street Presbyterian Church to-day and to-morrow. Ladies of all denominations will be welcomed.

This morning at 10 o'clock, after a welcome from the pastor, Dr. Witherspoon, and the opening address, Mrs. Currie of Staunton, will speak on the "Value of Organization," and Mrs. Edgar Woods, Jr., of Charlottesville, on "Chinese Homes."

This afternoon at 3:30, a devotional service will be held by Mrs. G. A. Wilson, of Brownsville, followed by a discussion of the "Requisites for a Successful Missionary Society," a spirited dialogue on the "Pros and Cons of Foreign Missions," between Miss Grace Sands, of Richmond, and Mrs. Simpson, of Charlottesville. Then the Rev. J. E. Booker will come in and speak on "Synodical Missions."

Friday morning at 10 o'clock a memorial service, in memory of Mrs. Sarah Miller Price, founder and first president of the East Hanover Presbyterian Union, will be conducted by Miss Maria Blair and Mrs. Margaret Cannon. Very helpful papers will follow on "Variety in Methods and Meetings," by Mrs. M. M. Caldwell, of Wytheville; "Mission Study Class," by Miss Katherine Spear, of Baltimore; "Domination," by Mrs. John R. Sampson; "A Message from China," by Mrs. L. L. Stuart, a missionary just arrived; "How We Can Help Our Disadvantaged," by Mrs. F. B. Webb, of Roanoke.

A large collection of curios of foreign things will be exhibited, among them exquisite embroidery, a Chinese bride's costume, a Chinese doctor's surgical instruments, and African wall axes.

Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, a devotional service will be held by Mrs. N. K. Guthrie, of Charlotte Courthouse, Va., after which there will be an adjournment to attend the reception at the rooms of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication.

Saturday at 10 A. M., a special meeting for young people's societies by young ladies will be held, of which notice will be given to-morrow.

THE COHEN COMPANY

Surplus Silk Sale

It is the manufacturer's and not our surplus; but it makes it the much better bargain for you. Overproduction, with Cohen's as an outlet, gives you a great chance. Here are some hints:

Fancy Silks, 50c values, 29c.

$1. and $1.25 Moire Velours, 65c to 85c.

$1. yard-wide Black Taffeta, 65c.

These are only to give you an idea of the scores of other big values. It will pay you to lay in a year's supply.

Beautiful Panne Velvet, $1.

Velvet is a member of the royal family of the cloth world. It is not always in fashion—neither is royalty—but when it is, nothing surpasses it. This is a velvet year. We have prepared for it accordingly. You need not be surprised to see this Panne Velvet in other stores at $2; but our price is $1, because we are satisfied with a modest profit.

HANDSOME VELVET SUITING.—It is a new kind, and is 24 1-2 inches wide, in all the new shades and black, 80c a yard.

Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Eliot Norton.

SONG.

By LADY DUFFERIN.

Another selection by this author, her portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series. These lines were written to the author's husband, then at sea, in 1833, and set to music by herself.

WHEN another's voice thou hearest,
With a sad and gentle tone,
Let its sound but waken, dearest,
Memory of my love alone!
When in stranger lands thou meetest Warm, true hearts, which welcome thee,
Let each friendly look thou greetest Seem a message, Love, from me.

When night's quiet sky is o'er thee,
When the pale stars dimly burn,
Dream that one is watching for thee,
Who but lives for thy return!
Where'er thy steps are roving,
Night or day, by land or sea,
Think of her, whose life of loving Is but one long thought of thee!

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1905. One is published each day.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Franklin Barnes, to Mr. Eugene Holt of Burlington, N. C., was celebrated yesterday at 10:30 in the home of the bride, No. 914 Floyd Avenue, the Rev. John V.
Downman, of All Saints' Episcopal Church, being the celebrant.

The color scheme of pink and white was developed in roses, chrysanthemums and palms. Elegance and simplicity marked every detail of one of the prettiest of home ceremonies, only the immediate families of the contracting parties being present.

The bride was beautifully gowned in hand-embroidered chiffon, over mousseline and tulle. Her veil was caught with a diamond sunburst, the groom's bride gift, and her flowers were a cascade of lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Franklin Barnes, as maid of honor. Miss Barnes wore white chiffon cloth and carried pink chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt will return from a Northern tour about December first, to make their home in Burlington, N. C., where Mr. Holt is a member of the firm of Lawrence S. Holt and Sons, cotton manufacturers. Mrs. Holt's friends in Richmond will greatly regret the fact that her marriage will fix her place of residence in another State. She is a graduate of the Woman's College and a very lovely young girl, whose father, a prominent business man of New Kent, has for the last several years lived in the West End.

Harrison-Beale.

A beautiful October wedding took place yesterday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of Mr. Maximilian V. Beale, No. 42 North Elm Street, when his daughter, Miss Ethel Genevieve Beale, became the wife of Mr. Thomas Bolton Harrison.
The parlor was elaborately decorated in pinks and pink chrysanthemums, while the dining room was in dark, rich red.
The Rev. Father John Massey, of Sacred Heart Church, was the celebrant.

Miss Alice Marguerite Beale, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr.
William Garnett Lee was best man. The little brother of the bride, Master Maximilian V. Beale, Jr., was the ring-bearer.
Misses Gay and Annie Lee Francis held the ribbons and wore dainty frocks of white over pink. The usher was Mr.
Stanley Kellam.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. She wore a handsome creation of gray crepe de chine, made of the ceremony, and carried a shower bouquet of gray chrysanthemums. The maid of honor's costume was pink mull over tulle, and her flowers were pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Mary Manning rendered the wedding chorus from Lohengrin and during the ceremony played softly "The Flower Song."

Immediately after the ceremony there was a reception in the home of the bride.
Later Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left for a Northern tour. They will be at home to their friends after November 20th at No. 42 North Elm Street. The bridal present was handsome and numerous, among them a set of French china sent by the employees of the Atlantic Coast Line offices.

The bride, who is a handsome and accomplished brunette, was educated at Notre Dame College, Baltimore. She is the granddaughter of the late Lieutenant Charles L. Beale, and belongs to the Virginia Beale family, the members of which formerly settled in Norfolk. The groom is the son of Thomas Bolton Harrison, Sr., and belongs to the well known family of James River Harrison. He is an enterprising young business man and is a clerk in the offices of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway.

Tyler-Deitrick.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Pollard Deitrick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. M.
Deitrick, to Mr. William Samuel Tyler, took place yesterday evening at 6 o'clock in All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Rev.
John V. Downman officiating.
The church was beautifully decorated in pinks and white chrysanthemums, while candles gave forth a soft light.
Miss Josephine Tyler, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Mr. James Tyler was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Brock, Tyler Brock, Marion Hewitt, Maxey Deitrick, Frank Deitrick and Robert McCandlish.
The bride entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man. She wore white crepe de chine, made on princess and trimmed with duchesse lace, and her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. Her flowers were Bride roses. The maid of honor was gowned in a white lace robe over tulle, with a crush of green chiffon velvet, and carried white chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony Mrs. Russell Chelf, sister of the bride, gave an elegant reception to the bridal party at her home.
Mr. and Mrs. Tyler left for a trip North, and will be at home to their friends at No. 212 North Plum Street on their return.

Lipscomb-Taylor.

Miss Callie Emelyn Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Taylor, was quietly married at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening to Mr. John Bailey Lipscomb, at the home of the bride's parents, No.
5 West Cary Street. Dr. W. R. L. Smith performed the ceremony. Miss Annie Taylor, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and wore an elaborate gown of pearl gray crepe de chine, with crush of lavender silk. Her flowers were violets.

The bride was given away by her father.
She wore a stylish going-away gown of green, with a green velvet hat, and carried Bride roses. The only attendant was Mr. Thomas Fendley, Jr., who was best man.

The young couple left immediately for a Northern tour, and will be at home after November 10th at No. 5 West Cary Street. The bride is a charming young lady, and has a host of friends. The groom is a successful business man of this city, and is connected with the Southern Railway.

Woodrow-Dewey.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Haylander Dewey, of Portsmouth, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Caroline Preston Dewey, to Mr.
William Lawrence Woodrow. The ceremony will be performed on Saturday evening, November 11th, at 6 o'clock, in All Saints' Church, Portsmouth.

D. A. R. Convention.

The State convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution is holding its session at Roanoke. The Roanoke Times of Tuesday makes the following mention:
"Most of the delegates to the D. A. R. conference, which holds its opening session to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Elks' Home, will arrive in the city this afternoon. An elegant reception will be tendered the delegates and Daughters of the local chapter this evening at Hotel Roanoke. There will be about one hundred and eighty guests present, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated."

Whist.

At the meeting of the Milton C. Work Whist Club, held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the Woman's Club, the highest score was made by Mrs. Martha Harvie and Mrs. Garrett Nelson north and south, and Mrs. Ben Nash and Mrs.
C. W. P. Brock, east and west.

McVeigh-Goldsborough.

A marriage in which Richmond society is interested, and which was attended by a contingent of Richmond people, is reported in the Baltimore Sun thus:

"The most notable social event of the season in Frederick county was the marriage at Walkersville yesterday of Miss Katharine Goldsborough, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Worthington Golds-borough, to Mr. Llewellyn Walton Mc-Veigh, a prominent society man of Richmond, Va."

The bride, who is widely known and connected in Baltimore, is a lineal descendant of Robert Goldsborough, bar-ister, and also of Robert Goldsborough, both of Myrtle Grove, and is also a great-granddaughter of Dr. Richard Henry Lee, of Virginia, signer of the Declaration of Independence.

The groom is also of distinguished lineage, including the Randolphs, Meads and Skeltons among his ancestors.

The marriage took place at 12:30 o'clock in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Chapel at Walkersville, which was a bower of floral beauty, green and white being the color scheme.

The ceremony was performed by Rev.
Ernest McGill, rector of St. John's Church. Rev. Henry Redinger Lee, of Virginia, uncle of the bride, and Rev.
Osborne Ingle, of Frederick.

The bride wore a gown of cream satin duchess, trimmed with old family lace and adorned with the pearls which have been worn by brides in the family for many generations. Her veil was of tulle, secured with orange blossoms. She carried a large shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She entered the church with her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Henrietta Lee Goldsborough, as maid of honor, who wore white organdy and carried pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Marianne Skelton Gibbs, of Altoona, Pa., a cousin of the groom, was flower girl, attired in a pink muslin trimmed with lace and pink ribbons, and carried pink chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. George Dangworthy Mayo, of Richmond. The ushers were Mr. Edmund Lee Goldsborough, of Washington, Mr. Julian Finney Skelton, of Richmond. The wedding march was played by Mr. Hamilton Mead Baskerville, of Richmond.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at Litchfield, the Goldsborough home, which was decorated with pink chrysanthemums and green asparagus fern. Pink wax candles in antique silver, brass and crystal candelsticks shed their soft glow over the scene.

Guests were present from Baltimore and Richmond, and many went from Frederick in automobiles. Among the 100 guests entertained at the wedding breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lee Goldsborough, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldsborough, of Culpeper, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mar-cen Duval, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Levin Richardson, Miss Alexander Dushane, Miss Sadie Poe, Miss Katharine Duval, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Poe, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Garrett and Miss Garrett, of Baltimore; Mr. Francis B. Poe, of Washington; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Bedinger Lee, of Charlottesville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Gibbs and Miss Gibbs, of Altoona, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs.
Lawrence Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. Otis
Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Emmert, Mrs. Henry W. Potts, Miss Eleanor Lee Potts, Miss Janney, Mrs. Nancy Lee Calcott, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Nora Wever, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stewart Woodward, all of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs.
Charles W. Ross, Jr., Miss Mary Ingle, Rev. Osborne Ingle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Potts, Miss Maud Potts, Miss Louise Poe, Mr. Harry Chaplin, Miss Sallie Pontier, of Frederick; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Laughlin, of Sawickley, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Glenn, Mr. Hamilton Mead Baskerville, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harrison, of Richmond. After a trip of some weeks to Cuba, Mr. and Mrs. McVeigh will return to Richmond.

Meeting of C. M. L. S.

Mrs. C. W. P. Brock presided Wednesday forenoon at the meeting of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society. Other ladies present were Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Miss Ellen Jones, Mrs. F. S. Woodson, Mrs. W. B. Freeman, Mrs. R. N. North-

Letter Number Two

In Which the Brother Touches on the Hysterical Adulation of Public Idols by Women

My Dear Kittens: You will be interested, I think, if not altogether pleased, at an experience I had, apropos of your last letter.

You told me in that letter about the "time of your lives" that you girls had at Music Hall the other afternoon at a recital given by —; how his playing simply "carried you off your feet"; how it "enthralled" you and made you all feel that this pianist was "simply divine." All the girls had "creeps down their spines"; they were "hot and cold all over," etc. In short, you had one of those hysterical flings that seem to appeal to girls and women at these recitals.

You must read the brother's letter in full, in the was acknowledged with appreciation.

Thanks were returned to the Washington Post for a copy of "Messages and Papers of the Confederacy," edited by Congressman J. D. Richardson, of Tennessee. The originals from which Mr. Richardson's work has been compiled are now in possession of the United States government, and represent diplomatic papers of great value.

Mrs. Hamlet, chairman of the Publishing Committee, reported the hanging of framed advertisements of the Museum in different parts of the city.
Mrs. Brock, of the Ways and Means Committee, was instructed to correspond with Mrs. Gielow and arrange for an "Old Plantation Song," entertainment, to be given for the benefit of the Memorial Society, and the Richmond Chapter U. D. C.

Letters were reported by Mrs. Daniel containing the signatures of Hon. G. A.
Trenholm and Hon. Hugh McCloud, secretaries, and Mr. J. N. Hartly, assistant secretary of the treasury of the Confederacy; also one of Inspector-General George W. Lay, attested by General G. T. Beauregard.

Recital Postponed.

The musical recital, which was announced to take place at the Richmond Conservatory of Music on Friday, October 27th, will be postponed until a later date.

A BIG VERDICT.

The Whiting Brothers Secure
Damages for $20,000.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, Va., October 25.—Frank and William S. Whiting, now residing at Abingdon, Va., have been awarded damages in the sum of $20,000 against H. S.
Dewey, of New York city. When the Whiting brothers were operating a large lumber mill at Elizabethton, Tenn., they had negotiated a deal for the sale of their one-half interest in the business.
A Northern man had come to Elizabethton and looked over the properties, and after had decided to buy them, he said to the Whiting brothers that a change in his return to the North, as was alleged in the bill, the Northern received a communication from Dewey, which knocked the deal in the head. Dewey, it is said, was then employed by the Whitings, and was receiving a good salary.
Through fear that a change in ownership might lose him his position, he is said to have written the letter. The action was in the nature of a libel suit.

The jury, after deliberately considering the case, came to the conclusion that the Whiting brothers were entitled to every cent for which they sued, and according to a verdict was so rendered.
